THE NATIONAL BLACKSMITHS COMPETITION COMMITTEE CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE CHAMPION BLACKSMITH
OF THE YEAR COMPETITION FOR STATIC FORGINGS AND THE BEST BLACKSMITH OF THE YEAR COMPETITION FOR LIVE FORGINGS

1. The awards will be given annually.
2. The qualifying heats for the awards are restricted to shows that have shown evidence of a high standard in exhibitions and competitions, and are authorised by the NBCC committee.

AT PRESENT THE FOLLOWING SHOWS HAVE QUALIFIED: -

The Royal Welsh Show	The Edenbridge and Oxted Show
The Three Counties Show	The Devon County Show
The North Somerset Show	The New Forest and Hampshire Show
The Dorset County Show	The Royal Cornwall Show

3. Shows taking part in the qualifying heat must select at least one judge from the selection, for the forthcoming year, of the three or four nominated by the Judges Appointment Panel. If any of these judges are not acceptable for that specific show, then they may, in consultation with the Judge Appointments Panel invite another accredited judge to judge their show. The judge/s selected will act as the final arbiter/s of the winners of that heat for both awards.

Judges are only permitted to judge at one qualifying show. Should that judge preside at more than one show, the results will not count towards the Champion and Best Blacksmith Awards. Reserve regional judges are available through the Judge Panel Secretary, (Ms W. Alford) for emergency situations.

The marking system and cards issued by the NBCC in conjunction with the Worshipful Company of Blacksmiths must be used by all judges assessing competition entries.

4. At shows where there are more than one class for which blacksmiths may enter their pieces, the following procedures are to be adopted.

The Show's Champion Blacksmith will be selected by judging all the exhibits winning first place in different classes using a marking sheet separate from those used for the individual classes. The Steward then enters the identity of the makers onto the cards, and this determines the Show's Champions to be presented with the show plaques provided by the WCB.

At this point the nationality of the competitor is revealed and if that piece is from a Non UK National (Not resident) the result is removed, and adhering to the guidelines above, go back to selecting Show Champion (for the purpose of points awarded for NBCC) but using the second highest placed in the same class that is a UK entry. This will give the highest placed UK entry, which can then be allocated the 10 points.

The Reserve Show Champion Blacksmith will be selected by judging the exhibit gaining second prize from Show Champion's class together with the exhibits gaining first place in the remaining classes.

The above are judged as two separate classes, and not just on marks awarded on each class judging card as they are not likely to be a standard across the classes. EG a small item may receive more marks than a worthier larger item with more skill content in a different class.

NB. The non UK winner(s) should be presented with the Show's relevant plaques from the WCB and any show prizes.

5. Points will be awarded at each of the authorised shows as follow:~

Show Champion	10 points
Reserve Show Champion	4 points
Show Best Blacksmith	10 points
Reserve Best Blacksmith	4 points

Competitors may enter more than one piece at a show but all the entries must be judged and marked individually. Marks for several entries will not be averaged or aggregated.

6. The Blacksmith resident in the UK gaining most Show Champion points will be declared the Champion Blacksmith of the Year.

The Champion Blacksmith of the Year will be awarded a challenge trophy that they hold for a year, a plaque and a certificate to keep as a permanent reminder, and a cash prize. In addition the runner up will be awarded a plaque and a cash prize.

The Champion Live Blacksmith (for the hot forging competition) will be awarded a plaque and a cash prize. The runner up will also receive a plaque and a cash prize.

The winning piece or pieces of the Champion Blacksmith are not eligible for a National Blacksmith Competition award again.

All these prizes will be presented at the Awards Lunch of the Worshipful Company of Blacksmiths in October. The trophy for the Champion Blacksmith must be returned to the Learned Clerk of the Worshipful Company by the 1st of October in the following year.

7. Secretaries (or their appointed steward) of the qualifying shows must ensure that the marking cards, complete with competitors' names, and the classes' descriptions, are sent as soon as possible after the show to the NBCC Secretary (Mr Keith Mahoney). Photographs of the winning exhibits should be included. The NBCC secretary will inform the WCB's Clerk of the show's Champion and Reserve Champion in both the Live and Static competitions, the WCB'S show prize payments will be sent directly to them from the Worshipful Company.

NB If these results are not returned to the NBCC secretary, they will not be included in calculating the overall winners of the competition, and competitors will miss out on prize monies.

IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT THEY ARE RETURNED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

The results received by the Secretary will be tabled and presented to the Committee at the Autumn AGM to establish the winners and runners up.

The Secretary, upon receiving these official results, will forward the Names and Addresses of the Show Champions and Reserve Champions in both the Live and Static competitions, to the Worshipful Company enabling them to send the monetary awards directly to the winners.

The full results will then be submitted to the Worshipful Company of Blacksmiths.

In the event of a tie in the table of marks to find the National Champions, three qualified judges from, or appointed by, the NBCC will deliberate on the tied entries to come to a definitive decision. If the winning exhibited pieces are not available to be examined, then the judges will consider the relevant marks on the Show Marking Cards that have been returned to the NBCC secretary. Alternatively, it has been established that in a tie situation, the Worshipful Company may at their discretion award the competitors who are concerned equal honours.

The aim of the awards is to promote blacksmithing and to encourage other shows to hold wrought ironwork competitions and to apply to join the circuit.

NODYN ARBENNIG / SPECIAL NOTE

The Wrought Ironwork Competitions are designed to give craftsmen an opportunity to gain a National Award at the Royal Welsh Show. The competitions are open to any craftsmen who have already completed commissioned work or who are willing to make any items in time for the Show. The RWAS will make arrangements to display the exhibits for four days at the BLACKSMITHS' STAND.

BEIRNIADU / JUDGING

The judging will take place on Monday July 22 at 8.00am and Live Competitions will take place on Thursday 25 July 2024 starting at 10.00am at the BLACKSMITHS' STAND.

The Competition pieces will be judged to the following criteria:-

Marks	Heading	Description
40	Forging	The standard, range and difficulty of craft skills used in the hot and cold working of component pieces, to include forging, forming and cutting.
20	Construction	The standard, range and difficulty of craft skills used in the joining and fitting together of component pieces.
10	Finish	The standard of pre-treatment metal preparation, to include removal of sharp edges, weld spatter, tool marks and scale, and the quality and appropriateness of finish applied.

20	Design	The design skills used in co-ordinating relevant factors, to include choice of materials, function – fit for purpose, balance and proportion choice of techniques and the overall aesthetic effect of the completed piece. Points may be awarded for presentation and for provision of information or drawings relating to design, site/location and purpose.
10	Creativity	The extent to which imagination and innovation/originality are demonstrated in the piece. In the case of traditional work, the imaginative interpretation of and sensitivity to the chosen historic style.

Total 100 marks possible.
