AMODAU CYFFREDINOL AR GYFER POB DOSBARTH GENERAL CONDITIONS APPLYING TO ALL CLASSES

The Smallholding & Countryside Festival will be staged in line with Welsh Government Covid-19 legislation and guidance.

1. The RWAS Shearing Committee has adopted the world rules as laid down by the British Isles Shearing Competitions Association to which the Society is affiliated and these are applicable to the Woolhandling Competitions.
2. Competitors must arrive at the Shearing Section on the Showground and report to the reception desk in person, one hour before the time stated in the schedule for the commencement of their competition. Failure to do this may result in the competitor concerned not being allowed to compete. The reception desk will close 30 minutes prior to the start of all competitions regardless of whether all competitors have registered their arrival.
3. All reporting times in this schedule will be strictly adhered to.
4. Prize money will be paid by BACS after the Festival.
5. The decision of the Chief Steward of the day shall be final.
6. Any competitor found tampering with the sheep may be disqualified.
7. Competitors take part at their own risk.
8. Competitors are only permitted to participate under their own names and cannot nominate another competitor to compete in their place.
9. Competitors will not be allowed to wear trade vests etc., other than those issued by the Chief Steward.
10. No late entries will be accepted.
11. The draw will be done on a first entered, last heat system.
12. Competitors must wear suitable footwear and clothing.
13. Where necessary, rules and regulations as printed in the Society's Festival Livestock Schedule and Safety Policy Document, available on the website, will apply.
14. A disputes panel has been established to deal with any practical issue which might arise on the day of the competitions. The panel will consist of the Chairman, Referees, Chief Steward, Judge and Competitor's representative concerned.
15. Any formal protest must be made in writing within fifteen minutes of the results of the competition being displayed together with a £25 deposit per objector. The Protest Committee will consist of the Honorary Festival Director, the Chief Steward, the Referee concerned and the Chairman of the Shearing Committee. If the protest is not sustained to the satisfaction of the Protest Committee, then the deposit may be forfeited to the funds of the Society.
16. Competitors should note that sheep may have been dipped within four weeks prior to the Festival; however, every effort will be made to ensure that they have not been dipped within this period.
17. All organisers, competitors and sheep suppliers will uphold all bio-security protocols currently applicable at all times.
