UNITS OF MEASUREMENT AND DIMENSIONS

Metric measurements are to the nearest practical equivalent of Imperial. Exhibitors will have the advantage where there are slight discrepancies between the two scales.

Weights

With the many makes of honey jar available and their varying weights (up to 20g in some cases) the only way of the judge being certain that the jar contains 454g (1lb) of honey is, if, there is no air gap visible between the surface of the honey and the lower edge of the lid.

- 1 Entries must be completed online no later than 12 June 2023. NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED.

- 2 DELIVERY OF EXHIBITS – HONEY SECTION – SOUTH GLAMORGAN EXHIBITION HALL
Exhibitors must stage their exhibits between 2.00pm and 6.45pm on Sunday 23 July and between 7.00am and 8.00am on Monday 24 July in readiness for judging at 8.15am. These times will be confirmed in your letter to exhibitors, which must be checked prior to your arrival. NO exhibits can be staged after these times. Each package must have the following details written on a card enclosed with the contents.
  - a) Exhibitor's name, address and telephone number.
  - b) List of all items with exhibit numbers, or white exhibitor's label envelope.

- 3 COLLECTION OF EXHIBITS – THURSDAY 24 JULY FROM 5.30PM
Exhibits may not be removed until 5.30p.m. on the last day of the Show by the exhibitor or his representative in the presence of the Senior Steward or his Assistant Steward. In the event of neither the exhibitor nor a person with written authority from the exhibitor being available to display and/or remove the exhibits, they will be displayed and removed by the stewards appointed by the Show Committee.

- 4 All exhibits must remain on display for the four days of the Show and must be collected between 5.30p.m. and 7.00p.m. (ON FOOT ONLY) on Thursday 27 July. Vehicular access will be allowed for exhibitors issued with a SGEH Competitive Section Service Car Park Pass (Red) FROM 7.00PM OR SUBJECT TO THE DEPARTURE OF LIVESTOCK VEHICLES.
Any exhibit left in the Hall after 7.30p.m. on the last evening will be the responsibility of the exhibitor.
Barriers will be placed at each entrance to the section and exhibitors will only be allowed entry when accompanied by a steward. Exhibitors or their representatives must produce their exhibit label envelope listing their exhibit numbers to the Steward before removing them from their display positions.

- 5 The number of the exhibit must be legibly marked on every exhibit with labels supplied by the RWAS to be affixed as follows:
On sections and shallow frames - label at right top corner of the vertical transparent face and a duplicate on the top of the frame or section.
Honey and Honey preserve jars approx. 1cm from the bottom.
Cakes and blocks of wax on the under surface as displayed.
Wine and Beer bottles -approx. 1cm from the bottom.
With the exceptions of classes 21 & 34 where the said label should be affixed to the show bench in front of the exhibit, classes 22, 38 – 41, 46 and 49 - 51 labels attached to disposable plates / back of item.

- 6 Labels for cut comb classes shall be fixed one on the lid and the duplicate on the side of the container.

- 7 No card, label, trade or distinguishing mark or name of the exhibitor, other than supplied by the RWAS (classes 1, 2, 3 and 34 excepted) may be placed on any part of the exhibit, nor must the labels be altered in any way whatsoever. The Chief Sectional Steward is empowered to mark any branding on frames.

- 8 ALL EXHIBITS MUST BE BONA-FIDE PROPERTY OF THE EXHIBITORS. All exhibits must have been prepared by the person in whose name they have been entered and all honey and wax must have been gathered from flowers in the natural way within the United Kingdom, by bees which are the property of the exhibitor at the time of gathering, with the exception of the Confectionery section.
- 9 Jars containing runny or extracted honey, except in classes 1,3, 31 & 34 must be of the 454g glass squat of the British Standards Institute specification with a standard metal commercial screw or twist type top. They must be effectively secured against leakage to the satisfaction of the Judges. N.B. 454g is understood to be approximate.
- 10 Labelling Regulations
It has been agreed to adhere to the Powys and Oxford Trading Standards Departments guidelines. For the purpose of the Welsh National Honey Show all classes requiring the exhibitors own labels must comply with the following requirements which must all appear on the same label:-
- a) The word HONEY which may be prefixed with the type of honey and or area of origin. e.g. New Forest Heather Honey.
  - b) The metric weight must appear – figures to be at least 4mm high for 454 & 227g weights.
If the imperial weight is shown it must be in close proximity to the metric and be less prominent. The 'e' symbol if used will be ignored.
  - c) Your name and address must appear on the label.
  - d) The country of origin must be shown on the label. e.g. 'Produce of the U.K.' The country name alone at the end of your address is not sufficient.
  - e) A 'best before' date must appear on the label (suggest 2-5 years) or an indication of where it can be found. i.e. for 'best before' see base of jar.
  - f) Lot numbers and approved tamper evident seals are to be used for exhibits in classes 1, 2 & 3.
- 11 Sections must be glazed on both sides, must be secured in a neat way and capable of easy removal by the judges.
- 12 Shallow combs - no paper edging permissible and each must be exhibited in a separate plain glazed wooden case.
- 13 Wines, vinegar, mead and honey drinks will be exhibited in 25/26 fl oz (75cl approx.) clear glass wine bottles with a suitable stopper. Plain white labels (supplied by the RWAS) stating type of mead must be affixed in addition to labels in Rule 3, to bottles in classes 29,30, 34, 73 & 74.
- 14 Exhibitors are entitled to enter one entry only per class. Exhibitors cannot enter as individual and as a company. Judges, Judges Stewards and their respective immediate families, and the Chief Sectional Steward will not be allowed to exhibit in the Show. Welsh National Honey Show Judges and Stewards may offer honey for sale as per rule 16.
- 15 The judges shall be empowered to: -
- (a) request the Chief Sectional Steward to arrange the analysis of an exhibit,
  - (b) withhold prize money in case of insufficient merit.

The judges decision is final. Protests must be dealt with in accordance with the following procedure:

Any exhibitor or member wishing to lodge a protest having reference to a prize awarded to any exhibit at the Show must do so in writing, and deposit with the Chief Sectional Steward the sum of £25.00. If, on investigation, the protest is not sustained to the satisfaction of the protest Committee appointed by the Board of Directors the sum thus deposited may be forfeited to the funds of the Society. All protests must be delivered to the Chief Sectional Stewards before 4.00p.m. on the day on which the award in dispute was made, no protest will be subsequently received, unless a satisfactory reason be assigned for the delay. All or part of an exhibit which is the subject of a dispute may be retained by the protest Committee until a decision has been made.

- 15 No responsibility will be accepted by the Society for loss or damage to exhibits or any part thereof, during the Show. The Society will not be responsible for the loss of any item in transit to, or from, or in the Showground.
- 16 Honey and honey products up to a maximum of 70Kg (150lbs) per household will be accepted for sale from exhibitors and those as per rule 13 providing they are members of a recognized BKA by the Chief Sectional Steward on a sale or return basis. A further 50 x 454g jars of honey may be brought to the show on a 'stand by' basis and will be offered for sale only in the event that all initial stock of that producer has been sold. An approved commission will be charged. All honey presented for sale must be pre-sealed as a guarantee of a first class quality product by the producer concerned. Tamper proof seals are not required on jars in Gift Classes because the caps may be removed by judges.
All labels and weight categories must be in accordance with the current EEC and UK Trading Standards and Health and Hygiene Regulations. All items for sale may be inspected by officials of the Trading Standards Department. The Chief Steward Sectional reserves the right to refuse acceptance of any honey or bee products offered to the section for sale. If any jar of honey delivered for sale is found to be sub standard the whole batch will be returned to the supplier.
Honey for sale - maximum quantity 70Kgs (150lbs) must be delivered to the Sales Counter between 2.00 p.m. and 6.45 p.m. on Sunday 23 July. Exhibitors are responsible for delivery and collection of any unsold products. The 'stand by' stock will be stored in a secure place away from the Honey Section and will be offered for sale as Rule 15 & 16.
- 17 In the event of a tie (see Welsh Royal Crystal awards etc) seniority of awards will be taken into account.
- 18 Show exhibits may be used as samples for the WBKA honey judges examination.
- 19 Exhibitors whose entrance fees amount to a minimum of £22.75 will receive a complimentary admission ticket to the Show. Making up an entry fee by donation is not allowed.
- 20 No exhibitor will be eligible to gain more than one association prize. Exhibitors should include the name of one Beekeeping Association only on their entry form.
- 21 Points will be awarded as follows - 1st: 4, 2nd: 3, 3rd: 2, highly commended: 1. A highly commended card may be awarded in Classes with 8 entries or more.

- 22 If the exhibitor is under 18 years of age then the entry form has to be completed by a parent/guardian who is over 18 years of age. Please note that whoever completes the online form takes full responsibility for complying with all rules and regulations. If the exhibitor is entering the Junior classes by completing the form the parent/guardian is also confirming that the child's date of birth is within the class criteria.
- 23 The Royal Welsh Agricultural Society is committed to protecting your personal data and processing it only in accordance with legal requirements. For more details you should request a copy of our GDPR policy. We process your personal data as it is necessary for the performance of our contract with you to facilitate your entry to the Show. We will not transfer your data outside of the UK & EEA (European Economic Area) and will not share your data with third parties. Results will also be circulated with members of the Press and published on our website. We retain your data in accordance with our retention schedule to simplify future applications. You have various rights in the data we hold including rectification and objecting to processing.
- 24 Prizes will be awarded or withheld at the discretion of the judges whose decision is final. Prize money will be paid via the online portal within an eight week period after the Show, winners will be sent an email to log into their online account (except in cases of protest).
- 25 The Society reserves the sole right to nominate person(s) to conduct interviews with the media. Permission must be sought from the Society if any camera crews wish to accompany an exhibitor during the event.

NODIADAU / NOTES

Tamper evident seals in the Commercial Class may be broken during judging.

Purveyors of honey are invited to donate one jar for sampling purposes.

Exhibitors are invited to submit suggestions, for consideration by the WNHS Committee that would, in any way improve the Show. Please place your suggestions, with your name, in the box provided at the Sales Counter of the Welsh National Honey Show.

All reasonable care will be taken of exhibits, but the Society cannot be responsible for any loss or damage sustained by an exhibit in any way whatsoever.

Challenge Cups and Trophies – PLEASE NOTE:- The Challenge Cups and Trophies are permanently housed in a purpose made Trophy Room situated in the Clwyd Glamorgan Hall. The winner of each Challenge Cup and Trophy will be awarded an Official RWAS Memento as a keepsake, their name will also be engraved on the Challenge Cups and Trophies.
