GENERAL RULES - FORESTRY SECTION

1. All expenses connected with transmission, delivery and removal of exhibits must be borne by exhibitors. No exhibit may be removed before the close of the Show without the consent of the Assistant Honorary Director.
2. Exhibitors are allowed to send a representative to unpack, arrange, repack and return their exhibits, but in the event of any exhibitor being unable to do this and giving notification thereof at the time of making his/her entry, the Stewards will undertake the work.
3. No responsibility will be accepted by the Society for loss of or damage done to exhibits or any part thereof, during or after the exhibition nor will the Society be responsible for the loss of any item in transit to, or from, or in the showground.
4. Protests: Any protest must be made in writing and handed to the Chief Sectional Steward within half an hour of judging, together with a deposit of £25.00 which will be returned if the protest is upheld.
5. Each specimen for exhibition must be identified with the number provided prior to being staged by the exhibitor. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to ensure that exhibits are entered in the appropriate classes as scheduled.
6. The Royal Welsh Agricultural Society is committed to protecting your personal data and processing it only in accordance with legal requirements. For more details you should request a copy of our GDPR policy. We process your personal data as it is necessary for the performance of our contract with you to facilitate your entry to the Show. We will not transfer your data outside of the UK & EEA (European Economic Area) and will not share your data with third parties. Results will also be circulated with members of the Press and published on our website. We retain your data in accordance with our retention schedule to simplify future applications. You have various rights in the data we hold including rectification and objecting to processing.
7. The Society reserves the sole right to nominate person(s) to conduct interviews with the media. Permission must be sought from the Society if any camera crews wish to accompany an exhibitor during the event.
